

SPIRALS- Program Notes

SPIRALS is conceived as a sound - fantasy inspired by dreams, visions, and imaginary journeys through dazzling, beautiful, crystalline, suspended spiral galaxies. The explosion of material in the beginning initiates the core. The material that follows continually evolves and revolves around the core material while simultaneously moving further and further away, drifting into infinity.

SPIRALS was completed in 1979 and premiered by Jeffrey Jacob in Carnegie Recital Hall.